Who we are

Who is providing this notice?

Credit Union Services, Inc.

What we do

How does Credit Union Services, Inc. protect my personal information?

To protect your personal information from unauthorized access and use, we use security measures that comply with federal law. These measures include computer safeguards and secured files and buildings. We also restrict access to nonpublic personal information about you to those employees who need to know the information to provide products and services to you.

How does Credit Union Services, Inc. collect my personal information?

We collect your personal information, for example, when you

- Apply for a lease and give us your income information
- Provide employment information and give us your employment history
- Give us your contact information and provide account information

We also collect your personal information from others, such as credit bureaus, affiliates, or other companies.

Why can't I limit all sharing?

Federal law gives you the right to limit only

- sharing for affiliates' everyday business purposes — information about your creditworthiness
- affiliates from using your information to market to you
- sharing for nonaffiliates to market to you

State laws and individual companies may give you additional rights to limit sharing.

What happens when I limit sharing for an account I hold jointly with someone else?

Your choices will apply to everyone on your account – unless you tell us otherwise.
